Chattanooga, we are in for a treat. Named by GQ "the best new menswear designer in America", Billy Reid brings not only his trunk show to Warehouse Row this week. Join him Friday at 5pm for music and whiskey. Sustainable lifestyles design firm Alabama Chanin offers a workshop Saturday from 10am 'til noon. Tanner Hill Gallery will display hand-cranked letterpress art from Knoxville's Yee-Haw Industries. Sam Beall of Blackberry Farm will provide the goodies and a cooking demo from 2 'til 4pm Saturday. Our very own Lisa Norris will demonstrate her album binding technique all day Saturday. What a feast for the senses!
