

Warehouse Row Retailers To Benefit On Point

posted June 17, 2010

Three stores in Warehouse Row will donate a percentage of daily sales to support leadership and life skills development program On Point on Friday, from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m.

Embellish Shoes, The Cosmetic Market, Snap Kids will offer ten percent off regularly priced items and will donate ten percent of daily sales to On Point.

Organizers said, "This is a fun event to raise awareness and funds for On Point. Your feet will thank you. Your face will thank you. Your kids will thank you. Most of all, we will thank you. Mention that you support On Point and receive ten percent off your purchase of regularly priced items."

On Point works to build healthy teens by providing the knowledge, support and skills needed to achieve a life of excellence. On Point serves 62 schools in Hamilton, Catoosa, Dade, Gordon, Walker, Whitfield, and Sequatchie Counties. Its curriculum is used in 40 states and 11 countries.

---

Since On Point's inception, the local teen pregnancy rate has decreased 72 percent.